Sally Ride Science co-founder Dr. Karen Flammer recently had an article published in SEEN magazine (South East Education Network), a publication that reaches around 100,000 educators throughout West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Kentucky and Arkansas.

In the article, Dr. Flammer makes the case for STEM education as a pillar of college readiness, addressing many of the tenets of the Common Core State Standards, which have been adopted by most every state in the southeast U.S.
