Fall 2023 TEFL COURSE OFFERINGS

Our Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) programs provide training in teaching English as a second or foreign language to ESL/EFL students. Completing a certificate program can increase job prospects in English language teaching and international education both in the U.S. and overseas. For those seeking international adventure, our TEFL programs will open doors to travel/work abroad and rich intercultural experiences. For more information, email us at tefl@ucsd.edu.

Information Sessions

Are you looking for a career change? Perhaps you have always wondered if teaching was right for you. Join us for an information session of your choice to learn more about our program offerings and how you can start your teacher training today! You can join the online asynchronous information session at any time and view the materials. The live online synchronous information session will include a live presentation and will be followed by a Q&A.

Course Delivery Method

We offer a variety of delivery methods for our classes including in-person, live online synchronous, and online asynchronous. See below for descriptions.

- In-Person/Hybrid = Class meetings will be held at our La Jolla Extension Campus. Students must physically attend in-person class meetings in order to pass the class. No exceptions. There will also be required asynchronous independent work.

- Online Asynchronous = Class will be entirely online and asynchronous. Students will work at their own pace to complete the required weekly coursework. There will be no required virtual class meetings, but the instructor will hold a few optional Zoom meetings throughout the quarter.

9600 N. Torrey Pines Road, La Jolla, CA 92037  •  Email: tefl@ucsd.edu  •  Web: extension.ucsd.edu/tefl
Learn the best methods for getting ESL and EFL students to speak by analyzing conversational discourse, pronunciation, and affective factors. This course will suggest fluency and accuracy activities that can be used in and out of the classroom. Learn factors that hamper improved speaking skills for ESL and ESL learners.

Teaching Writing for Academic and Professional Purposes
Learn about discourse features of successful writing in English, in particular for academic and professional communication in the U.S. and around the world. The following are specific to good written English and are often not found in the same ways in the writing of other languages: uses of reference, substitution, ellipsis, conjunction, lexical cohesion. This class will instruct you on the rhetorical and formal conventions of good writing, and the most effective ways to share that knowledge with your ESL and EFL students.

Online Asynchronous

Theory and Methods of Reading Instruction
In this course, you will receive an overview of various theoretical approaches as they apply to reading in the ESL and EFL classroom, relevant areas of research in foreign language reading, and connection of theory and research to the teaching and learning of reading. You will gain a thorough understanding of the reading process and the ways in which to build and assess reading skills, particularly academic and professional material. There will be an emphasis in how to best teach vocabulary and idioms through reading in an ESL and EFL context.

In-Person
Instructor: Christina Palumbo, MEd in TESOL
Additional TEFL Classes

Teaching English to the Intermediate Young Learner (Ages 8-11)
This course focuses on taking a young learner-centered perspective and using scaffolding instruction while balancing task demands and support. You will learn how to create and deliver intermediate-level lessons in speaking, listening, reading, and writing to this specific age group. In addition, you will also learn and practice the art of storytelling as well as develop an entire themed unit by using authentic children’s literature. This course will allow for self-reflection of each lesson delivered as well as professional feedback from the instructor.
